Voliva Says the World Is Flat

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, leader of the religious sect with headquarters at Zion City, Ill., says the earth is flat and that shortly he will prove it by taking a ship and sailing around the outer crust of the earth. Voliva proposes to captain a ship called the "Zion" and will start on a point at the sixty-fifth meridian and keep going to the starting point. He says the earth is flat as a pancake and the point we call the North Pole is the center of the earth and there is no South Pole, and that the sixty-fifth meridian is near the rim of the earth. The photograph shows Voliva (seated) explaining the map to his personal attendant in his office at Zion City.

MARY'S WEDDING CAKE

One of the wedding cakes made for Princess Mary of England, elaborately designed and set on a great base. Three tiers composed the cake, on the lower tier being inscribed the initials "M" and "L"—for Mary and Lascelles—respectively.

Quebec Names.

In the province of Quebec there is much uncertainty in the spelling and the use of names. A scattered people in a huge half-wild country, unlettered for the most part and with no one to turn to for counsel . . . is apt to pay attention only to the sound of names, caring nothing about their appearance when written or the sex to which they pertain. Pronunciation has naturally varied in one mouth or another, in this family or that, and when a formal occasion calls for writing, each takes leave to spell his baptismal name in his own way, without a passing thought that there may be a canonical form. Borrowing from other languages has added to the uncertainties of orthography and gender. Individuals sign indifferently, Denise, Denise or Deneje; Conrad or Conrade; men bear such names as Hermenegilde, Agline, Edwige.—Louis Hemon, in "Maria Chapdelaine."

Sport for the Clerks.

Soap chips in an Emporia (Kan.) grocery store looked so much like brown sugar several people stopped and put a handful in their mouths. The more they masticated the worse the latter got, and the store clerks who naturally dislike people who lunch off the store had a day of real sport.

Salty.

Salt beds covering an area of forty square miles exist in Nova Scotia. One bed alone is said to be 900 feet wide and eighty feet deep.

LOUISIANA CROPS
INJURED $1,000,000

Frost and Freeze Seriously Affect Truck and Berry Growers

New Orleans, La.—Truck crop and berry damage from last week's frost and freeze in this territory is authoritatively estimated as follows: New Orleans trucking district, $500,000; Hammond berry district, $40,000; Delcours district, $200,000; Bertrandville district, $10,000, and Hazlehurst district, $250,000.

The truck growers with cucumbers, peas, beans and early corn suffered almost a total loss of crop, according to reports. The loss, it is said, will exceed a million dollars.

Several Factories Await Deep Water

Monroe, La.—A large number of manufacturing plants will be located in the Ouachita valley at Monroe, Camden or some point, in event an appropriation is secured for completion of locks and dams on the Ouachita river, giving deep water from the source of the river in Arkansas to New Orleans, according to a letter received from J. M. Goff, president of the Arkansas Timber Company of Memphis, and owner of extensive land and timber interests in Louisiana in the vicinity of Monroe.

Mr. Goff passed through this territory a few weeks ago on a tour of inspection with representatives of several Eastern manufacturing plants that are considering locating in the Ouachita valley. Mr. Goff said he has been negotiating with the Mengel Box Company of Louisville, Ky., which is considering plans to build two large mills in lumber territory on the Ouachita river and will handle some 100,000 to 150,000 feet of logs and lumber a day and employ a total of 1,000 men.

McNicol Brothers of Sebring, Ohio, has had representatives in this region, considering the advisability of erecting a $500,000 pottery plant, which would employ 500 men, women and children, according to Mr. Goff. Mr. Goff also said that the Grismore-Hyman Company of Memphis may erect a large heading mill and employ 300 people.

Boom Noted in Wildcatting.

Monroe, La.—Oil scouts and representatives of oil operating companies are coming into Northeastern Louisiana in larger numbers than has been the case for two years because of a boom in "wildcatting" around Bernice, La., in the western part of Union Parish. The Middle States Oil Company, the Humphreys Mexia Oil Company, the Gulf Refining Company and other big operators have secured considerable holdings, mostly in Union Parish, and have made preparations to drill on a big scale. This has started feverish activity in leasing in Union Parish and thousands of acres of oil and gas rights are being recorded at Farmersville.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper. Advertisement.

Truth of the Situation.

"No," corrected Susan, "she didn't finish it until she married Harry Hedges and had to live on $1,000 a year."

Her Baby.

"I've left my babe in there to die!" shrieked a frantic woman who was rescued from the burning building.

Police were asking the number of her room when a 21-stone man in pajamas and a jaunty hat appeared on a balcony and called down: "Don't worry, Lou; I'm safe."

"My baby," gasped the woman, thankfully.

THOUGHT IT LOOKED STRANGE

Odd Appearance of Drug Store Astonished Woman Customer, Until the Clerk Explained Situation.

The woman needed three ounces of tincture of myrrh. Hurrying up the street her glance was caught by two mammoth bottles of apothecary waters, and two swinging doors of frosted glass.

Down she stepped—three steps down—into as attractive a drug store as she had seen. All was pure white walls, dazzling plateglass mirrors, gleaming soda water accessories and row upon row of shelves filled with bottles of ointments, camphors and medicinal remedies.

"Three ounces of tincture of myrrh," said the woman to the clerk.

The clerk hurried out of sight and the woman began to notice how queer was the structure of this drug store. There were columns and pilasters where there shouldn't have been any. The counter had a peculiar bend to it.

Then a strange, prickly feeling came over the woman.

When the clerk finally appeared he explained cheerfully: "Used to be a barroom, lady!"—Chicago Journal.

Darkey's Excellent Reason for Preferring to Take His Chances With the Bear.

A New York man tells of an exciting bear hunt in Mississippi. The bear was surrounded in a small enclosure. The dogs could not get him out, and the gentleman who was at the head of the hunting party called to one of the darkeys:

"Gus, go in there and get that bear out."

Gus hesitated for a moment and then plunged into the cane. A few moments later the negro, the bear and the dogs were rolling on the ground outside. After the hunt was over the man from the north said to the darkey:

"Gus, weren't you afraid to go into that thicket with the bear?"

"Colonel," said Gus, "it was just the way: I never had met dat bear, but I was pussunally acquainted with de old boss, so I jest naturally took dat bear."—Philadelphia Ledger.
